THE STATE OF OHIO,
LAKE COUNTY, SS.

I, Christopher Quinn, Clerk of the District Court of the State of Ohio, within and for the county of Lake, do hereby certify, that in the records and proceedings of said Court, at their term held at the Court House, in the town of Painesville, in said county, on the Seventh day of September A. D. 1857, before the Honorable Horace Wilder Benj. F. Hoffmann & Lyman W. Potter Judges of the same, in a certain action wherein The Bank of Grange is Plaintiff and John V. Batchelor Defendant which was entered in our said District Court by Appeal from a Judgment rendered in said cause by the Court of Common Pleas, at their September Term, A. D. 1856, I find a Judgment rendered by our said District Court, in form following, to wit:

By agreement of parties this cause is settled at Defendants costs for which Judgment is rendered

And it is further ordered by the Court, that the Clerk of this Court, under the seal thereof, certify to said Court of Common Pleas a summary transcript of the foregoing proceedings and Judgment of our said District Court, with a special Mandate, requiring the Court of Common Pleas to carry the same into full and complete execution.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the Seal of our said Court, at Painesville, the 20th day of September A. D.
1857.

C. Quinn Clerk.
